

Friends of the Lake District – Common Land

We have received an email (attached) asking for support in taking actions raising awareness around common land and village greens.

There are a number of areas of common land in the parish, so this may be of benefit to the council.