Dear Colleague

The CALC Board currently has a vacancy in the South Cumberland Area and it is the intention of the CALC Board to fill this position from the membership through council nominations which will be followed by an election.

Please find attached a letter which gives an outline of the timetable for when the nominations have to be received by and the date for when the election will take place, together with a nomination form, a role profile for this position and additional guidance on the nomination election process. Any candidate wishing to be nominated must read the profile and be able to state how they meet the criteria required for the position before they will be considered.

I look forward to receiving your nominations by 1st December 2025.

Kindest Regards

Sonia Hutchinson
