

Declarations of Interest (annual review)

Members have been provided with copies of their declaration of interests forms and have been asked to review these. If amendments are required, they should be made on the amendments form and handed to the proper officer for registering.

There is a form to be signed on the evening to confirm if the declaration is correct as it stands or if an amendments form has been submitted.